Executive Proclamation
Office of the Governor

Whereas, Staff Sergeant Steven D. Halter's dedication to service has made him a valuable asset to this state and country; and,

Whereas, We have very few occasions to recognize the patriotic individuals for their service to this state and country; and,

Whereas, Staff Sergeant Halter has devoted more than 21 years of his life to the service of this state and country as a Combat Engineer and leader in the Engineer field, including service in Iraq supporting Operation Iraqi Freedom, Panama, Germany, and many state activations in support of flooding and blizzard operations; and,

Whereas, His loyalty and leadership have made him a cornerstone in the Armed Forces of this country; and,

Whereas, Staff Sergeant Halter continues to give of himself; and,

Whereas, It is fitting and proper as Governor to commend Staff Sergeant Steven D. Halter for more than 21 years of dedicated and outstanding service to this state and country:

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim March 31, 2010, as in South Dakota, and I join with his family and friends in wishing him well in his retirement and thanking him for his service to the state of South Dakota and to the United States of America.

STAFF SERGEANT STEVEN D. HALTER DAY

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twenty-second Day of February in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Ten.

M. Michael Rounds, Governor

Attest:

Chris Nelson, Secretary of State
